From Baltimore:

West on route 70 to Frederick, Md. South on route 15 to Leesburg, Va. Continue on route 15 through/around Leesburg and continue south on route 15 (route 15 is James Monroe Hwy) for 4 miles to the Fleming's on the left. Watch for a Weimie sign and balloons. A new land mark has been added since many of you have been to our farm. There are triangular "Do Not Pass" signs right at our drive way.

From Washington DC:

Take 495 in Virginia to route 267 (Dulles Access Road). Take 267 for about 15 miles to the Green Way. The Green Way is a private toll road, and is an extension of the Dulles Access Road. The cost is about $5.50. It ends at Leesburg. Stay to the left at the Leesburg exit and enter onto route 15 south/7 west Leesburg bypass. Go about 2 miles and exit onto route 15 south. Continue south on route 15 (route 15 is James Monroe Hwy) for 4 miles to the Fleming's on the left. Watch for signs and balloons. A new land mark has been added since many of you have been to our farm. There are triangular "Do Not Pass" signs right at our drive way.

If you don't want to pay the Green Way toll, get off route 267 at the route 28 north exit. Travel 5 miles to route 7 and head west to Leesburg. Take the route 7 west/15 south exit and continue about four miles to route 15 south. Continue South on route 15 (Route 15 is James Monroe Hwy) for 4 miles to the Fleming's on the left. Watch for signs and balloons. . A new land mark has been added since many of you have been to our farm. There are triangular "Do Not Pass" signs right at our drive way.

From the South:

Take Route 15 North. After the route 50/route 15 intersection, continue on route 15 about six miles to Fleming's on the right. Watch for signs and balloons. A new land mark has been added since many of you have been to our farm. There are triangular "Do Not Pass" signs right at our drive way.
